By Kirby Lee

Candice Baucham will always be a sprinter at heart but it's the triple jump where the Poly High senior is gaining the greatest acclaim.

Baucham has emerged as the nation's top triple jumper after taking up the technical event last season. As a freshman and a sophomore she concentrated on the sprints.

In April, Baucham bounded 42 feet, 3 1/2 inches for the best mark in the nation this season at the Arcadia Invitational. The meet-record mark ranks Baucham as the 12th-best performer in high school history and the furthest since 1996.

In March, Baucham, who will attend UCLA, captured the National Scholastic Indoor title at 41-10 1/2. No other jumper in the state has gone further than 39-4 1/2 this season.

As a junior, the 5-3 Baucham showed immediate promise in the triple jump. The former gymnast went on to finish second in the state behind teammate Blessing Ufodiamma.

"Breaking 40 feet never crossed my mind last year," Baucham said. "I was just doing it and getting the hang of it. This year, everything seems a little more polished."

Poly jumps coach Clinton Pruiet was impressed by Baucham's leaping skills during bounding exercises as a freshman and sophomore. It took some stern words,

Baucham is the Nation's Best in Triple Jump

A Look at the State's Top Five in the Triple Jump

1. Julianna Yendork (Walnut), 1991 44-0 1/2
2. Wendy Brown (Woodside), 1984 42-10 1/2
3. Yvette Bates (Berkeley) 1984 42-5 1/2
4. Candice Baucham (POLY), 2001 42-3 1/2
5. Blessing Ufodiamma (Poly), 2000 41-1 3/4

however, from Ufodiamma, now a Washington State freshman, to coerce Baucham to finally abandon the sprints last season.

"I told her 'You know what Candice, I don't think you have a chance in running to make the state meet,'" Ufodiamma said. "You really want to go to state, you have to do the triple jump. It may hurt, but I am telling you the truth."

This season, Baucham has added almost two feet to her best of 40-6 3/4 as a junior and surpassed Ufodiamma's school record of 41-1 3/4. She also has a long jump best of 19-4.

Baucham attributes the triple jump improvement to added leg strength from weight workouts and switching from a double-arm to a single-arm technique during the hop and step phases for additional speed.

"Each phase is longer so my distance is further," Baucham said. "Before I was a little timid to do it. Now, I will try to get that extra inch."

The triple jump is considered among track's most difficult events and the long jump is often easier event to master. It's been just the opposite for Baucham, who credits her experience as a gymnast and ballet dancer as factors in her rapid rise.

Baucham competed in gymnastics for eight years with the Long Beach-based American Gymnastics Academy and finished second in the all-around competition in the Level 9 regionals, the second highest level, before giving up the sport in the seventh grade.

The diminutive Baucham said the flexibility and abdominal and hip strength from gymnastics coupled with the coordination of ballet is similar to the requirements in the triple jump.

"They go hand in hand," Baucham said. "I don't think height has much to do with it. I think it's the ability the hold phases and the coordination of your arms and legs."

Baucham took up track in the eighth grade and won the City 400 title but was lost in the shuffle with sprint-laden Jackrabbits during her first two years. This year, however, Baucham has finally earned a spot on the Jackrabbits' 400 relay on a team of freshman Chanda Picott, Jasmine Lee and Shalonda Solomon that has posted the second fastest time in the state at 45.65.

It was her triple jump prowess that attracted scholarship interest from UCLA, USC, Michigan State, Oklahoma State and George Mason. Baucham, however, chose the Bruins for the opportunity to remain in Southern California and the opportunity to train under UCLA jumps coach Al Joyner, the 1984 Olympic gold medalist in the triple jump.

Last season, Baucham went a remarkable 36-1 1/4 in her first competition in the L.A. Invitational when her main objective was to reach the pit. By the end of the year, Baucham finished ranked as the No. 4 returnee in the nation.

Baucham's goal this season was to go 42 feet but now 43 feet is becoming a reality. The national record is 44-0 1/2 set by Walnut's Juliana Yendork in 1991 but no other jumper has gone further than 42-11 3/4 in high school history.

"She is just a natural talent," Pruiet said. "It took us two years to find out but it's better late than never. This year, she has gained valuable experience and it is a matter of her being used to the competition. It is really up to her how far she wants to go."

Galeana Much More than Just a Star in Track and Field

By Kirby Lee

Jose Galeana calls track and field his life but his family's welfare is most important for the Littlerock High senior.

Galeana, the oldest of five children, gave up football and basketball last year and sacrificed preparation for his junior track season to help support his family after his father Max Hernandez was unable to work because of a back injury.

Determining that workman's compensation and his mother Leticia Hernandez's salary as a hotel manager would not make ends meet, Galeana, who has been among the state's top 400-meter runners this spring, entered the work force as a manual laborer.

"We had lots of bills and I told myself 'I had to do this,'" Galeana said.

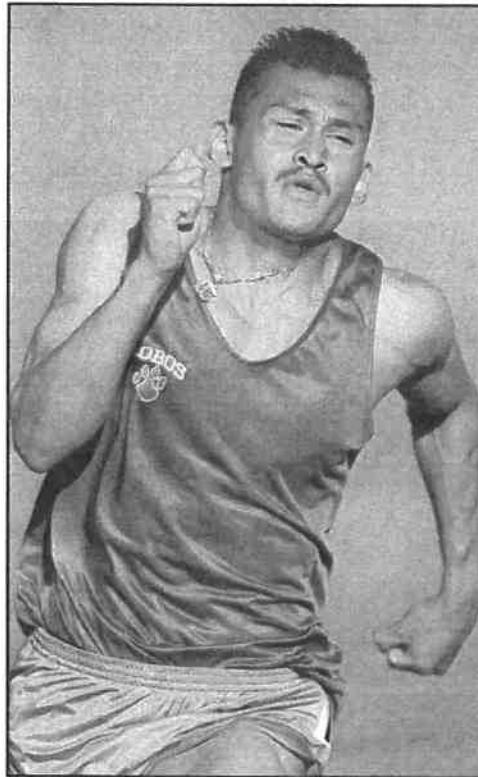

"I thought about it for a day, maybe an hour. My father told me 'You don't have to do this,' but I really felt that we needed it. It takes a lot of money to feed all of us."

Galeana took his father's place at an industrial metal heat-treating company, working five to six hours a day after school and sometimes on Saturdays. By agreement with his father's employer, Galeana, who was introduced to the trade as a child, received the same wages as his father without working full time.

"It made sense," Galeana said. "I told them nobody knows the job better than me."

Galeana headed to work every afternoon after school, toiling often until 11 p.m. under the intense heat of a furnace in the lengthy and intricate process of strengthening metals through heat treatment.

Whenever he had a free moment at work, Galeana, who has a 3.3 grade-point average, tried to keep up with his studies.

"I was so exhausted I didn't want to take a shower and show up the next day for school," Galeana said. "It was stressful having to worry about my homework, my athletic life and doing all these things. I was constantly thinking about it and getting headaches from it."

The 6-foot, 175-pound Galeana, a wide receiver and a free safety, was forced to abandon preseason football practice in August of 1999 when his father was injured at work. Working over the next six months, Galeana donated his entire weekly earnings to his mother.

"I surprised when he told me he wanted to work, but very proud," Leticia said. "When I asked him 'Why? He told me he wanted to help me. He was always very busy. Mentally, it was very hard for him."

Things didn't get any easier when his father regained his health, allowing Galeana to return to track.

A hamstring injury that ended Galeana's sophomore season in the 1999 Golden League finals flared up. Galeana, who did not compete in the 400 until late in the season, failed to improve upon his sophomore marks in the 200 and 400.

This season, Galeana played soccer in addition to football in order to help his speed in track. He has run a school-record 48.27 to win the Northridge/Alemany Relays and was victorious at the Pasadena Games. Galeana also holds the school 200 mark at 21.3.

"He was good as a freshman and his talent was unlimited," Littlerock track coach Herb Wyre said. "I don't think he has peaked yet and this is the beginning."

Galeana's performances this season have attracted scholarship interest from Arizona State in track. He is also weighing an offer from Cal Lutheran for football and track and is hopeful of admission to Harvard or Columbia.

"This is my first year where everything is going right," Galeana said. "Being healthy and not having to work has been a big load off, a big load. Trust me. If I had those three years to practice and get experience, would have been a lot better off right now. When it comes down to it all, I think I'll get better."

His family is already better off thanks to Galeana.

Henderson Headlines Meet Packed With Individual and Team Talent

By Steve Brand
President, CPSWA

SACRAMENTO ... What is it that California has that no other state track and field championship can claim? Virginia has Alan Webb, who last weekend in Oregon took down Jim Ryun's 36-year-old mile record, running an incredible 3:53.43. Texas has sprinters ... bunches of them.

But only California can lay claim to having a member of the United States Olympic team which competed in Sydney, Australia, last fall.

Monique Henderson of Morse High in San Diego earned a spot on the women's 4x400 relay team ... the first high school athlete to make an American Olympic team since 1980 ... and although she was not chosen to run, she gained valuable experience in the Land Down Under.

Yet, when asked what her goals would be for 2001 after setting the National High School and American Junior 400-meter record at 50.74 seconds in this meet last year, records were never considered.

"Ever since I won as a freshman, my goal has been to become the first runner to win four straight state 400-meter titles," said the UCLA-bound senior who begins the countdown to do just that this evening.

"People don't understand that the California state meet is something very special."

Indeed.

Henderson may be the headliner, but as has been the case in every one of the 82 state meets preceding this one, talent oozes in virtually every event.

Quite A Year -- National record holder Monique Henderson was the first high school athlete to make an American Olympic team since 1980.

For the boys, Big Bear's Ryan Hall, the state leader in the 800, 1,600 and 3,200 as well as defending state champion at 3,200 meters, has elected to turn all of his focus to the 1,600, where he ran a blistering 4:04.24 in the Southern Section Masters meet.

On the girls side, the minefield that is the qualifying just to get to the state meet was never more evident than when Wilson's Lashinda Demus, the toast of Long Beach after becoming the first high school runner to crack the 40-second barrier in the 300-meter hurdles after running 39.98, had trouble with her steps and was unable to finish at the Southern Section Masters meet.

With her went the hopes of watching two national record-holders.

Here is a rundown of some of the top events in what promises to be two days of torrid competition as the quest to be No. 1 in the best track state in the nation unfolds.

In the history of the California state meet, only three athletes have won four consecutive state titles, an elite club Henderson hopes to join.

Olympic sensation Marion Jones dominated the 100-meter and 200-meter dashes between 1990-93. She swept the two events her freshman and sophomore years at Oxnard Rio Mesa and didn't miss a beat after transferring to Thousand Oaks her final two years.

A decade earlier, Fullerton's Natalie Kaaiawahia became the first four-time state champ, sweeping the shot put competition, finishing off with a then-state record 52-7 1/2 in 1983.

Just two years ago Auburn Placer's Lindsay Hyatt capped a four-year run by capturing her fourth state 800-meter crown.

And now Henderson is focused on not only defending her title in the one-lap event, where she earned a standing ovation off her national record last year in Cerritos, but also adding her second straight 200-meter crown.

"Four straight state championships is even more important than going to the Olympic Games," said improve but when it comes right down to it, time doesn't matter.

"With Angel (Cerritos Gahr's Angel Perkins) in the race, the time is certain to be fast."

Henderson Henderson and Perkins have been friendly rivals for the past three years. Perkins actually lowered the national record a week before Henderson ran 51.31 in the San Diego Section championships last year.

Although Henderson avenged her only high school loss in the quarter ...to Perkins at Arcadia last year ...the Gahr junior looked sharp in last week's Masters meet, running a state-leading 23.14 in the 200 and a 52.78 in the 400.

In drizzling, cold conditions, Henderson tripled for the second straight year in the San Diego Section meet, winning the 100 (11.89), 200 (23.69) and 400 (52.56).

She'll drop the 100 and jump onto the Morse 4x100 relay team tonight.

Henderson wouldn't have been the pick in the 100 anyway as Los Angeles Baptist sophomore Alyson Felix was pushed to a state-leading 11.53 by Long Beach Poly freshman Shalonda Solomon's 11.57 in the Masters meet.

The two will be joined by Northern Section champion Kelly Enos of Willows, (11.83) as well as last year's state runnerup, Porchea Carroll of Oxnard Rio Mesa (11.68).

What Henderson is as crowd-favorite for the girls, Hall is for the boys.

The 4:04.24 for 1,600 meters would be national headlines were it not for Webb. Hall is fully capable of making some noise himself.

The Stanford-bound Big Bear senior is looking to be the state's first sub-4 minute 1,600 meter champion. He will be taking aim on the existing national scholastic record of 4:03.22 set in 1987 by Paul Vandergrift of Pennsylvania and equally vulnerable is the state meet record of 4:04.00 by Carmichael Jesuit's Michael Stember in 1995.

Hall's 1:51.74 half-mile speed combined with his 8:58.7 two-mile strength will make him the prohibitive favorite.

His departure leaves both the 800 and 3200 wide open. In the 800, Chino Don Lugo's Raphael Asafo-Agyel (1:51.76) hasn't been pushed since Arcadia but look for Woodland Hills El Camino Real's Chris Wells-Anders (1:52.45) and Fallbrook's Jimmy Ungricht (1:52.7) to apply the pressure.

The 3200 features super soph Yong-Sung Leal of San Lorenzo Arroyo (9:02.15), Union City James Logan's Giliat Ghebray (9:07.20) and Oak Park's Mark Nevers (9:07.38).

The girls' distance are even more intriguing, involving a cast of many.

Newport Harbor's Amber Steen showed she's ready to move up a couple notches from her 1600-meter third place finish of a year ago when she outraced defending state 3,200-meter champ Anita Siraki of Glendale Hoover.

Steen's time of 4:43.75 took over as the yearly national leader as she was pushed by Siraki's 4:44.75. Waiting to take up the challenge are last year's state runnerup Sara Bei of Santa Rosa Montgomery (4:46.17) and San Lorenzo Valley's Alejandra Barrientos (4:47.88).

Later in the evening, Siraki showed why she's the defending state titlist at 3,200 meters, running 10:16.95 to leave Steen (10:26.45) well back.

But here, Bei joins in the mix and her 10:17.14 in the North Coast championships bodes well for a great race.

Speaking of great races, look for another sizzling showdown between El Cajon Granite Hills' Jeff Hunter and Riverside J.W. North's Jeff Garrison in both hurdle races ... especially the 300-meter intermediates.

North rallied to overtake Hunter in the 300s are Arcadia, clocking a 36.37 second time that held up as the state leader until Hunter set a section record with his 36.34 in the San Diego Section prelims.

Garrison showed he's up to the challenge with a 36.36 in the Southern Section finals.

Garrison is considered the better high hurdler but he'll have to be extra sharp against one of only three returning state boys champions, Woodland Hills Taft's Chris Morgan, whose 13.89 tops the list.

Then there's the boys sprints where Phillip Francis of Fairfax High in the Los Angeles Section (10.52 in the 100) and Seth Amoo of Palmdale Highland (20.98 in the 200) will have to fend off challenges from the likes of Stockton Franklin's Maurice Dosty (10.55) and Sonora's Rodney Landingham (21.26).

Nothing sets the stage for the meet like the 4x100 relays.

Woodland Hills Taft, the state leader all year, suffered a baton drop in the league meet but was byed through and won the Los Angeles City championship in 41.21 seconds. San Diego University City is right behind at 41.29, Berkeley St. Mary's a tick back at 41.30 and Long Beach Poly looming with a 41.2 hand time.

National girls 4x400 leader Long Beach Wilson, with a very fresh Demus, is the lopsided favorite there after running 3:37.48 in the Southern Section finals.

The Bruins' own national record of 3:36.32 set in 1998 could be threatened.

Field events, too, promise outstanding competition and it's here that the new state at-large rule could play a role.

Year-long state high jump leader Alex Marbley of Tustin (6-11 1/2) finished eighth in the Southern Section championships, which normally would have meant the end of his season, but because he cleared the automatic qualifying height of 6-5 1/2, he's still alive.

Others didn't struggle nearly as much.

San Luis Obispo's Karen Freberg (53-7 1/2) is more than six feet ahead of National City Sweetwater junior Aiga Maria Taumua (46-10 1/4) in the shot.

Defending boys state triple jump champ Jamil Smith of Palmdale, the yearly leader at 50-10 3/4, qualified easily at 48-4 1/2 and Sean Shields of Arroyo Grande, who tops both the shot (64-1 1/4) and discuss (209-9) lists, will be hard to beat although he did finish third in shot at the section championships.

On the girls side, consistent Shayla Balentine of Morro Bay (13-0 3/4), Long Beach Poly's Jamie Kolar (13-0) and Van Nuys Birmingham's Melissa Astete(13-0) all advanced in the pole vault.

Defending State Champion -- Chris Morgan of Taft is the favorite in the 110 high hurdles, an event he won at last year's state championships. photo by Kirby Lee.

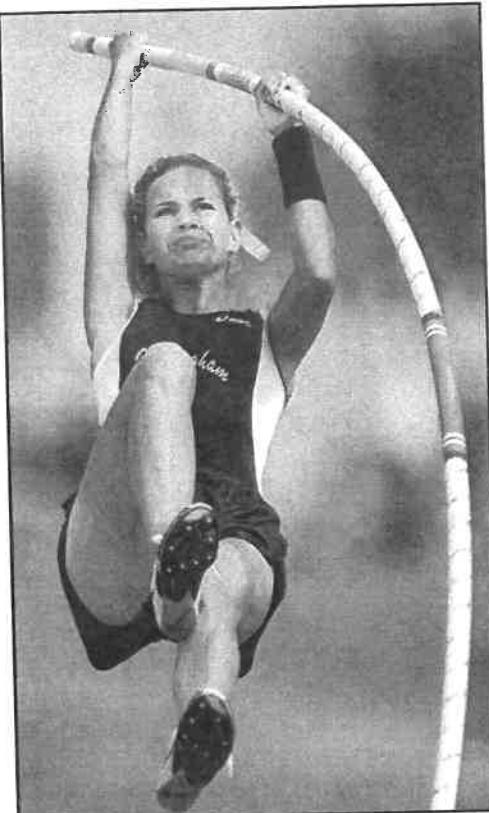

State leader Elzunia Wojcicka (20-3 1/4) of San Benito Hollister and San Jose Mt. Pleasant's Undine Becker (20-1 1/2) had a thrilling duel in the Central Coast Section championships that will be renewed tonight.

Likewise, Long Beach Poly triple jump sensation Candice Baucham (42-3 1/2) was pressured by Woodbridge soph Michelle Sanford (41-1 1/2) in the Southern Section championships. Next up round two.

Only 12 inches separate new yearly discus leader Gennessa Guzman of Charter Oak (163-3), Arroyo Grande's Michelle Pequignot (162-10) and Woodland's Katie McKeever (162-3).

Close ... you bet. It's part of what makes the California State Championships special. Just ask Monique Henderson.

2001 CIF State Track and Field Honor Coaches

Honor Coaches are selected by the Track and Field Coaches Alliance and are honored for their contributions to the sport.

Duane Breaux
Burton H.S.

Art Anderson
Crawford H.S.

Ben Gonzalez
Norco H.S.

Eric Tweit
Newport Harbor H.S.

Melanie Jernigan
Eisenhower H.S.

Duane Breaux has been coaching high school track and field for five years, one year at International Studies Academy and the last four years at Philip & Sala Burton Academic High School in San Francisco. He coached several state meet qualifiers including Jini Hogg and Roshena Duree. Breaux started as an age-group coach in 1991 where he coached many Junior Olympics and National Championship medalists. He also coaches basketball and cross country.

Art Anderson has taught for 37 years in the San Diego School District. He has coached track and field for 34 years at Clairemont, Hoover, San Diego and Crawford High Schools. Anderson has been the Coach of the Year in the Western, Central and Harbor Leagues and has been a league representative in all those leagues. He coached 1971 state champion Dale Fleet (2-miler).

The CIF Southern Section Honor Coach in 1998, Ben Gonzalez has coached for 30 years. During that time, his boys' teams have won 13 league titles and his girls' teams have won 10. Gonzalez also coaches boys' and girls' cross country. Some of the outstanding athletes he has coached include Darrel Willis (400 meters), Mike Melendez (3200) and Stuart Gonzalez (3200). Ben has been the Ivy and Mt. View League Coach of the Year 20 times.

Eric Tweit has coached track and field for 22 years at Newport Harbor High School, where he also coaches cross country. Counting his time at Excelsior, Bellflower and St. Paul High School's, Tweit has 31 years of coaching experience. His girls' team won a CIF State Cross Country Championship and have two CIF Southern Section titles. He has coached numerous athletes to the state meet in track and field including Amber Steen.

An assistant coach at Eisenhower High School, Melanie Jernigan's expertise is in the horizontal jumps. She has coached on the high school level for 22 years, the last 15 at Eisenhower and has coached league champions in the long jump or triple jump the last 10 years. In addition, Jernigan has coached a masters meet qualifier in eight of the last nine seasons. Jernigan threw the javelin at Cal Poly Pomona from 1975-79.

Bill Taylor
Sir Francis Drake H.S.

Jayleen Budwig
Fowler H.S.

Dennis Raymond
Coalinga H.S.

Jim Lytjen
Retired Coach

Gary Teague
Pierce H.S.

Bill Taylor is a veteran of 25 seasons of coaching. While at Drake High School, Taylor's girls' cross country team won three consecutive CIF North Coast Section titles in 1978-80 and a fourth in 1985. His 1978 girls' mile relay team placed third in the state meet and, in 1982, his girls' 4x400 relay team ran the sixth fastest time in U.S. prep history to that point. Despite all his success, Taylor's philosophy doesn't focus on winning or losing. "Winning is just something that happens after you work hard and do the best you can," he says. "I don't coach to win."

Jayleen Budwig had an early start with track and field as she grew up in southern California and began to learn the throwing events at an early age. She began coaching at Fowler High School in 1989 as an assistant track and field coach. In 1992, she became the Redcats head coach. Since that time, Budwig's athletes have qualified to the state meet six times. The boys' teams have been West Sierra League Champions three times and the girls' team has won league the past two years. Budwig is especially proud of the growth of the Fowler program.

Dennis Raymond coaches at Coalinga High School in the Central Section. He has been involved in the program at Coalinga for the past seven years, the last five as the head coach. In 2000, his boys' team won the CIF Central Section small school championship, while his girls' team won their sixth straight North Sequoia League Championship. Raymond had two individuals qualify to the state meet in 2000 and one fifth place qualifier. Working toward getting an all-weather track is his next project.

Retired from the coaching arena, Jim Lytjen is a member of the California Community Colleges Track and Field Hall of Fame. He grew up on a farm and ran for the pure joy, something he still does today. He coached at Lassen High School, Ukiah High School and San Jose City College. Lytjen was instrumental in introducing the discus event to track and field in the CIF Northern Section. In 1991, Lytjen ran in the Masters World Championships in Finland, where he set a world record in the 800 and a national record in the 1500 for his age group.

Gary Teague began his educational career as a student teacher and assistant coach at Las Plumas High School. He then taught and coached at Mercy High School for 14 years before accepting a teaching position at Pierce High School, where he is currently the athletic director. He is also the track and field coach and girls' basketball coach at Pierce. His wife, Cindy, was recently inducted into the Butte College Athletic Hall of Fame for Track and Field.

2001 CIF State Track and Field Honor Coaches

Honor Coaches are selected by the Track and Field Coaches Alliance and are honored for their contributions to the sport.

Robert Jackson King
Del Campo H.S.

Robert Jackson King began his educational career at Hamilton High School in 1965. He has also taught and coached at Cordova, Mira Loma and currently Del Campo High School. Since taking over the track and field program at Del Campo in 1982, King's teams have won seven varsity league titles and have a 111-30 dual meet record. King was the NFICA Coach of the Year in 1996 and the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Cross Country Coach of the Year in 1994. He was inducted into the California Coaches Hall of Fame in 1991.

Tony Griswold
Morse H.S.

The CIF San Diego Section Coach of the Year in both 1992 and 1996, Tony Griswold began his coaching career at Kearny High School in 1980. In 1984, he coached at La Jolla High School and then started at Morse in 1985. His teams have dominated the San Diego Section winning section titles in 1985, 1990-92 and 1996-98. In 1996, the boys' relay team at Morse ran a section record 3:10.86 at the state meet finals.

Dan Fitzpatrick
Gahr H.S.

Dan Fitzpatrick has been coaching track and field for the past six years. The head coach at Gahr High School, Fitzpatrick leads one of the top athletes into the 2001 meet in Angel Perkins.

Ashley Lennon of Petaluma High School.

Jim Hume
Hillsdale H.S.

Jim Hume has been the head track and field coach at Hillsdale High School since 1986. He has also coached cross country at the school during the same period. Jim has been very active in both sports at the league level and was the 2000 CIF Central Coast Section Cross Country Meet Director. He is a Master Level Track and Field Official and a Level I Lead Instructor for the USA Track and Field Coaching Education Program.

Bob Slover
Del Mar H.S.

Bob Slover has been the head track and field coach at Del Mar High School since 1971. During those 30 years, he also had two five-year stints coaching football at both the frosh/soph and varsity levels. Bob has blessed with several quality athletes who have participated in both the CIF Central Coast Section and State CIF meet. Del Mar's 1996 boys team won the CCS title, and the 1997 team was the section runner-up.
